

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

November 25, 2015

With great pleasure we would like to announce that Attorney Timothy P. Crawford was one of several local attorneys in attendance at the Racine County Bar Association meeting on November 23rd who received the Pro Bono Honor Society Recognition Award. The Wisconsin Pro Bono Honor Society honors attorneys who served their community by providing at least 50 hours of qualifying free legal services during the past calendar year. Tim Crawford has provided pro bono legal services for various local organizations in Racine County for numerous years, and we are happy to proclaim that he has received this distinguished award.
